Descendants of Leonard Acre

Generation 1

1. LEONARD¹ ACRE was born about 1800 in North Carolina. He died about 1873 in Martin Co., Indiana. He married Sarah Ballard (daughter of Thomas William Ballard and Margaret _____) on 09 Jan 1824 in Wayne Co., Kentucky. She was born on 17 May 1803 in Wayne Co., Kentucky. She died on 24 Jun 1875 in Illinois.

Notes for Leonard Acre:

The census records consistently provide that Leonard was born about 1799 in North Carolina. However, research of his great granddaughter, Paulyne Acre states that he was born near Paris in Bourbon Co., Kentucky. The surety on Leonard's marriage bond was John Acre, who was probably either his father or son. Leonard's first son was named John. Since it was the custom of the day for the first child be be name after his paternal grandfather, it is assumed that Leonard's father was named John. The only John Acre/Acree in North Carolina that fits both the name and age is John Acre/Acree son of William Acree the Revolutionary War veteran. William received a pension and was living in Wayne County, Kentucky at the time of Leonard's marriage.

After Leonard's marriage, they moved to Alabama where they were living when daughter Nancy was born. They may have gone to Alabama to receive free land as a great deal of land was being given away about that time. By 1829 they were living in Orange County, Indiana where son Joseph was born. Leonard was in Martin County, Indiana during the 1850, 1860 and 1870 census. He died around 1873 and his wife, Sarah moved to Illinois to live with her oldest son, John and died there in 1875. Leonard probably is buried in the Acre Cemetery in Martin County, Indiana, but there is no marker.

The only Acre/Acree/Acrea family in Wayne Co., Kentucky seems to be the family of William Acree, the Revolutionary War veteran. Leonard Acre is probably the grandson of William. The surname of the family is spelled Acree, Acre and Acrea by various members. William apparently spelled his name Acree. Somewhere along the line some of the members used Acrea and Acre.

Several things point to the probability that Leonard is the son of John and grandson of William. Leonard was born in North Carolina about 1799. He married Sarah Ballard on 9 Jan 1824 in Wayne Co., Kentucky. His first son was named John which would make this consistent with the custom of the time of naming your first born male for your father. Also, Leonard named a son Ephraim, presumably after Ephraim, the son of John. The only two sons of William that are old enough to be Leonard's father are John and William. William's family has been researched and the researchers do not list a Leonard as a child. Also, William's will written 9 Feb 1820 and probated May 1820 does not mention Leonard. Thus, the circumstantial evidence points to the fact that Leonard is the son of John and the grandson of William, the Revolutionary War veteran.

Notes for Joseph Leonard Acre:

Obituary of Joseph L. Acre

At about 3 o'clock Sunday morning, June 13, 1897, just before dawn of that beautiful day, the spirit of Mr. Joseph Acre took its flight from the vale of tears and was borne on the pure morning air o'er the trackless path on which so many bloodwashed saints have traveled in their flight to eternal glory, there to find welcome only to those who lived in the fear of the living God.

He had been in poor health for some time and had been confined to his bed for some time. Death to him was not unexpected, neither was it feared. Mr. Acre was nearly 68 years of age. He was born in Orange County, IN, in 1829, and moved to this neighborhood when a mere child, and remained here until he was called by the Father who doeth all things well.

Mr. Acre was united in marriage to Caroline D. Hamilton in 1859; to them nine children were born, eight boys and one girl, three of whom preceded him to his final home. His widow and six children survive to mourn his loss. The children are all married, except Allie, the youngest who yet comforts his aged mother in the dreary home which death has robbed.

Mr. Acre was a Christian, having been in the service of the Lord for about 40 years. We present him not as a perfect man; for none are perfect, no not one. We mean by that he had weaknesses, but his erring was of the head and not the heart. Oh, death how little do we understand it, and how could we reflect too often on it, which is no respecter of persons, while in its onward march it so unmercifully fastens its grasp upon those who perhaps in our own view, will be missed most, and having no regard for the sorrow and heartaches left in its wake. Disregard for its victims almost causes us to rebuke it, but while in sorrow the thought comes to us, death is but a moment's separation, and to the child of God it has no terrors, but a debt we owe our creator. As we express our love for the deceased, having known him from our infancy, so long as life lasts the writer will remember the advice and good influence of the departed friend. We feel that we have been drawn nearer to the Devine Being, and would ask Him to encircle the entire bereaved family with His love. May their pathway through life be softened by devine influence, assuage and soothe the path and suffering of their hearts and reconcile them by love.

Robert Ragle Acre was born in Shoals, Indiana, on August 9, 1896. When he was quite young, the family moved to Lawrence, Indiana, several miles east of Indianapolis. They lived on a farm that was later bought by the US government for Camp Atterbury. The Ragle middle name was for the doctor that delivered him.

He attended Indiana University for his undergraduate work and was a Kappa Sigma. Hogie Carmichel, who was famous for writing Stardust, was a fraternity brother of his. He was selected the all round athlete because he participated in so many sports. He learned to play golf at this time and the first year was a scratch player. After graduating from the Indiana Medical School, he did his internship at Methodist Hospital in Indianapolis. The interns got to ride the ambulances at the time of the Indy 500 and he especially liked to talk about this.

While in Indianapolis he met and married Beulah Irene Gibson who worked in a bank there. Dr. and Mrs. Acre moved to Evansville in the early 1920's where he began his practice of urology. They at first lived on Cherry Street and then the Donaldson Arms. Later they moved to the Colonial Apartments. Their daughter, Joan, was born in 1929. Another daughter had earlier died at childbirth.

From the Colonial Apartments they moved on Taylor Avenue and then to Runnymede. In the early 1940's the Acres bought a lovely two story brick home at 2311 Lincoln Avenue. Dr. Acre loved to play golf and was city champion, country club champion and Indiana Medical Association champion many times. Dr. Acre's office for many years was in the Hulman Building until he bought land on Walnut Street and built his own office exactly the way he wanted it. He, however, did open an office on Outer Bellemeade and continued to practice until the late 1960's. In 1972 Dr. and Mrs. Acre moved to Owensboro, Kentucky, to be near their daughter. She was a member of the board of the Christian Home, a home for unwed mothers. She was on the Altar Guild at St. Paul's Episcopal Church. Canasta was her favorite card game and she had several friends that she played with. Also Dr. and Mrs. Acre belonged to a poker club with several other doctors and their wives.
